

LEMONAID & CHARITEA FOUNDATION IS PERIODICALLY LOOKING FOR...

AN INTERN FULL-TIME, IN HAMBURG.

WHO WE ARE.

The Lemonaid & ChariTea Foundation is a charitable organisation founded in 2010, which exclusively and directly pursues charitable purposes. The Foundation finances local entrepreneurial and income generating activities in the global south. All projects are selected by the Foundation and the advisory board and the local institutions are regularly visited. The sponsoring through the sale of the beverage brands Lemonaid and ChariTea is so far the most important source of financing, however, the Foundation is open to donations from third parties. The Foundation is based in St. Pauli / Hamburg in Germany.

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT.

- + You support us in all questions around the project coordination.
- + You are jointly responsible for the communication about the Foundation's work and about our projects.
- + General research work is part of your daily business.
- + If necessary, you help where help is needed.

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR.

- + You identify yourself with our philosophy and want to change society positively through your work.
- + At best, you must complete a mandatory internship as part of your studies and ideally study social/political/regional or economic sciences.
- + Important prerequisites are a desire for a start-up spirit, identification with our social business ideas and, above all, fun in a wide range of tasks.
- + You feel confident in the English language and have a good knowledge of the Spanish language.
- + Advantageous: You already have some experience in international cooperation and/or the NGO sector.

WHAT WE OFFER.

An exciting and challenging task as part of the team of a young NGO, which has annually increasing funds available for development projects.

NOW WHAT?

If you are interested, send your application (cover letter and CV) and possible start date to info@lemonaid-charitea-ev.org. Please state the position in the subject of your mail and send us the documents in PDF format (up to max. 5 MB). We are looking forward to your timely application!
